

Voluntary Licensing and Access to Medicine

Participants in the Harvard and Stanford Conferences

Crucial to the creation of the VLAM Task Force Report were two conferences, the first held at Harvard Law School in April of 2022, the second at Stanford Business School in September of 2022. The participants in those meetings are listed below. Many of the recommendations offered in the report have been heavily influenced by their interventions. However, it should not be assumed that any of them agree with any or all aspects of the report -- or that any of the organizations they represent endorse the report.
